

OHANA HOUSE

*Tiny House Nation and Sunspace
by Leisure Rooms with A View*

PART 1 OF 3

*Tiny House Nation™
fyi,*

Ohana means family in the Hawaiian culture and the idea behind it is that families are bound together and everyone must cooperate and remember one another. Clayton and Carol Hanchett downsized to a tiny house on wheels hoping to find that living with less helps them give more for their family. This unique design offers two separate trailers connected by a common area/sunroom.

Tiny House Nation on FYI™ follows renovation experts and hosts John Weisbarth and Zack Giffin as they travel across America to show off ingenious small spaces and the inventive people who live in them. The show airs May 14th - 400 Sq. Ft. Ohana House, on Tiny House nation Saturday nights at 9/8c on FYI.

Larry Miller from Sunspace by Leisure Rooms with A View located in Minocqua, Wisconsin participated in the episode in Aloha, Oregon. In this 3 part series we will introduce you to the project, look at the products used in the build and then take a look at the final result!
